

embrace humanity

Embracing humanity means opening our hearts to the needs of every child, ensuring they grow up with health, education, and protection from harm

93.7
million

children in 155 countries are in dire need due to conflicts, natural disasters, and other crises.

The Embrace Humanity campaign aims to support children affected by armed conflict, ensuring they have access to necessary health care, education, and safety.

That's 148 million kids

1.2 million women and children need emergency protection services.

By focusing on these vulnerable populations, the campaign promotes a healthy and peaceful future for every child.

Malnourished Children
6%

